Bank employees killed in terrorism acts

†3544. SHRI MOTILAL VORA:
SHRI SATYAVRAT CHATURVEDI:

Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) the number of incidents of terrorism and dacoities that took place in nationalized and non-nationalized banks alongwith the number of employees killed in such incidents;

(b) the policy of Government in respect of providing employment to a member of the family of those killed in the said incidents; and

(c) whether it is a moral responsibility of the banks to provide security to the employees and customers inside banks?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI PAWAN KUMAR BANSAL): (a) The number of incidents of dacoities/ robberies/thefts/burglaries and employees killed therein as reported by banks to Reserve Bank of India (RBI) during the years 2005 and 2006 are as under:

	2005		2006
	Nationalised banks	Non-Nationalised banks	Nationalised banks	Non-Nationalised banks
No. of incidents	181	24	152	32
No. of employees killed	3	—	2	—

(b) Indian Banks' Association (IBA) had in July 2004 circulated a model scheme to all public sector banks for payment of ex gratia amount in lieu of compassionate appointment. IBA has proposed to simplify the norms for payment of ex gratia and also recommended to the Government that spouse or one of the children of the deceased employee having requisite qualification could be offered appointment on compassionate grounds in exceptional circumstances like death of the employee on account of resisting robbery or dacoity or terrorist attack in the bank premises or outside while on duty. The proposal of IBA is under consideration of the Government.

(c) RBI issues circulars to banks on security arrangements from time to time advising them to be more vigilant, tighten up security arrangements and take preventive action against robberies/dacoities in their branches. Security measures implemented by public sector banks are reviewed in the State Level Security Committee meetings held periodically by the Regional Directors of RBI in all the States. The meetings are attended by bankers and State Government officials including police officials. The Committee takes stock of the security environment in the State, discusses about steps needed to be taken to strengthen security in banks and advises issue of requisite guidelines/instructions to banks.
